A bolt of Ughtning caused a merry go in the city at 6 o'clock last evening during the rain atorm.

While the rain was pouring down in corrects - ball of electric fluid left the servous, and descending at a Joe Patchen gail, landed with a terrific er at na the telephone pole at the on heres corner of Second and Ince 100 p. m - Thise service 200 p. m - Additional letters election of rison. The bolt peeled the pole, wisted the wires and rang the phone ells all over the city. A few seconds later a ball of fire dashed down a wire into the central telephone exchange and played an Italian mazurka over the head of Miss Mattle Wood, the night operator. Miss Wood was badly frightened and painfully shocked, but luckily escaped serious injuries. She says the ball of fire was as large as a bucket and cavorted over the wires and call board several minutes.

The territor charge burned out forty telephones and caused much damage to the wires.
